

Athenæum Subject Index to Periodicals.

ISSUED AT THE REQUEST OF THE COUNCIL OF THE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

LIST No. 2.

European War : Its Economic, Political, and Military History, Jan.-June, 1915.

SATURDAY, AUG. 14, 1915.

- Aden.
Aden : one of our outposts. By James Wilson.—Chambers's JI. Feb. 1915, pp. 81-3.
- Admiralty, Board of. See ENGLAND : Navy.
- Admiralty Law. See COURTS-MARTIAL, &c.; MARITIME LAW : International.
- Aeronautics : Military. In List I.
See also ENGLAND : Army—Royal Flying Corps ; EUROPEAN WAR : Aerial Warfare.
- Aerschot. See EUROPEAN WAR : Atrocities—German.
- Africa as cause of European War. See EUROPEAN WAR : Causes.
- Africa : History.
Political geography of Africa before and after the war. By Sir Harry H. Johnston. [Includes an appreciation of German exploration and administration in Africa; defines the share which she could have secured by negotiation; and outlines the redistribution of power in Africa after the war.]—Geogr. JI. Apr. 1915, pp. 273-301, 9 maps.
- Africa : History—War of 1914-15.
War in East and West Africa. By H. T. Montague Bell.—United Empire, Feb. 1915, pp. 114-20.
What the Germans did in East Africa. By S. T. Pruett.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 768-71.
- Africa, British East. See BRITISH EAST AFRICA.
- Africa, South. See SOUTH AFRICA.
- Africa, West. See also CAMEROONS.
- Agriculture : England.
War and the farmer. By S. L. Bensusan.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 830-40.
- Agriculture. Study and Teaching.
Instruction of agriculture in the army. Translated [from the Japanese] by F. S. G. P.—United Service Mag. Jan. 1915, pp. 373-80.
- Albania.
Albania and Albanians. By A. Petrayev.—Russkaya Misl, May, 1915, pp. 1-20.
See also EASTERN QUESTION : Balkan.
- Albert I. King of the Belgians.
Albert, King, of the Belgians. By Demetrius C. Boulger.—Scribner's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 294-303, port.
Portrait. By G. C. Cutler.—Field, 3 Apr. 1915, p. 568.
- Aliens.
Alien enemy litigants. By Arnold D. McNair.—Law Quart. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 154-69.
Caractère ennemi et de la condition des personnes ennemies quant à l'exercice de leurs droits civils : étude de droit comparé. Par Ch. de Visscher.—Law Quart. Rev. July, 1915, pp. 289-98.
Companies with enemy shareholders. By James Edward Hogg.—Law Quart. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 170-2.
Intercourse with alien enemies. By T. Baty.—Law Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 30-49.
Mise sous séquestre des intérêts des sujets ennemis. Par Maurice Alfassa.—Bull. Soc. Encouragement, Mar.-Apr. 1915, pp. 261-75.
See also NATIONALISM AND NATIONALITY ; TRADING WITH THE ENEMY.
- Aliens, Relief of. See BELGIAN REFUGEES ; EUROPEAN WAR : Relief Measures.
- Aliens' Act, 1914, England. See NATIONALISM AND NATIONALITY.
- Alsace-Lorraine.
France and Alsace-Lorraine. By A. J. Grant.—Polit. Quart. May, 1915, pp. 17-36.
- Amsterdam Exchanges. See FOREIGN EXCHANGES : Netherlands.
- Anglo-Saxon Characteristics. See TEUTONIC RACE.
- Antwerp : Siege of 1914.
Antwerp expedition [1914].—Candid Quart. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 185-99.
Taking of Antwerp. By E. Alexander Powell.—Scribner's Mag. Jan. 1915, pp. 92-104, illus.
- Arbitration : International.
International control. [Reality can only be given to a Court of International Authority if backed by international power.]—Polit. Quart. Feb. 1915, pp. 1-16.
National unity. By Charles E. Hooper. [Plea for international arbitration.]—Positivist Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 18-20.
- Architecture : France and Belgium.
Architecture in the Western battlefield. By W. Randolph.—5 Month, Jan. 1915, pp. 16-27.
Arts of war [have destroyed art treasures of peace]. By M. Lowndes.—Englishwoman, Jan. 1915, pp. 1-7.
Buildings in the Western war area. By E. W. Harvey Piper.—Building News, 8 Jan. 1915, pp. 36-8.
Destruction of churches in the war area. [Visé, Percy, Dixmude, Revigny.]—Architect. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 72-4, 5 figs.
Record of destruction. [Ypres, Longwy, Reims, Malines, Sermaize-les-Bains, Clermont.]—Architect. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 23-5, 4 figs. 2 pl.
See also ARRAS ; HASTIÈRE ; LOUVAIN ; MALINES ; REIMS ; YPRES ; BELGIUM : Reconstruction.
- Argonne.
In Argonne [in war-time, by an eye witness, i.e.] Edith Wharton.—Scribner's Mag. June, 1915, pp. 651-60, map.
- Armenia : Politics and Government.
See EASTERN QUESTION : Mid East.
- Armies. See under names of countries, e.g. ENGLAND : Army.
- Armies : Balkan. See EASTERN QUESTION : Balkan.
- Army : Transport Service. In List I.
- Arras.
Bombardment of Arras.—Architect. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 11-12, 2 figs.
- Artillery. In List I.
- Asia Minor. See EASTERN QUESTION : Mid East.
- Asia Minor, Greeks in. See GREEKS IN ASIA MINOR.
- Australia : Politics and Government.
Australia and the war.—Round Table, Mar. 1915, pp. 447-62.
Australia and the war. By J. M. Myres.—United Empire, Feb. 1915, pp. 121-6.
Australia and the war. By W. Jethro Brown.—Polit. Quart. Feb. 1915, pp. 41-55.
Australian labour party and [its attitude towards] the war. By T. Q.—New Statesman, 3 Apr., 1915, pp. 630-2.
Australia's stake in the war. By Alfred H. Horsfall.—United Empire, May, 1915, pp. 361-73.
- Australia : War Relief. See BELGIAN REFUGEES.
- Austria-Hungary : Army. See EUROPEAN WAR : Atrocities.
- Austria-Hungary : Description and Travel.
Impressions in Austria-Hungary. By R. S. Nolan.—19th Cent. May, 1915, pp. 1138-51.
- Austria-Hungary : Foreign Relations—Italy. See ITALY : Foreign Policy.
- Austria-Hungary : Foreign Relations—Rumania. See RUMANIA : Foreign Relations—Austria-Hungary.
- Austria-Hungary : Foreign Relations—Serbia. See SERBIA : Foreign Relations—Austria-Hungary.
- Austria-Hungary : Politics and Government.
Austro-Hungarian Ausgleich. By R. C. Hawkin. [Terms of the compromise regulating relations between the two States and effect of the European war thereon.]—Contemp. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 220-5.
Retribution in Hungary.—Spectator, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 102-3.
- Badges. See ENGLAND : Army—Recruiting and Enlistment.
- Balkan States. See EASTERN QUESTION : Balkan ; EUROPEAN WAR : Geography—Balkans ; and under names of Balkan States.
- Banks and Banking. See also EUROPEAN WAR : Finance ; SAVINGS BANKS, and under names of countries, subhead FINANCE.
- Banks and Banking : England.
Banks and the war crisis. By H. J. Jennings.—Fortn. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 155-68.
- "Bantam" Companies. See ENGLAND : Army—Physical Standards.
- Basra. See TURKEY IN ASIA.
- Beer : Taxation of. See LIQUOR TRAFFIC : Taxation.
- Belgian Refugees in England.
Australia and the Belgian refugees. By F. A. W. Gisborne.—Empire Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 73-80.
Belgian refugees and food problems in England. By Christopher Turnor.—Empire Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 114-9.
- Belgians. See NATIONAL CHARACTERISTICS : Belgian.

Belgium : Description and Travel.

Belgium as I saw it. By Santa Thyrsio.—Chambers's JI. Feb. 1915, pp. 71-6.

Towns of the Yser. By Jean de Bosschère.—New Statesman, 17 Apr., 1915, pp. 39-40.

See also HASTIERE; LOUVAIN; YPRES.

Belgium : Foreign Relations—England. See BELGIUM: Neutrality; ENGLAND: Foreign Relations—Netherlands.

Belgium : Foreign Relations—Germany. See BELGIUM: Neutrality.

Belgium : German Atrocities in. See EUROPEAN WAR: Atrocities.

Belgium : German Occupation of.

Arrest of Cardinal Mercier and his publisher.—Dublin Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 359-73.

Arrest of the Belgian Primate [Cardinal Mercier].—Tablet, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 43, 53.

Belgium on the rack: a bystander's testimony. By Frank Fox.—19th Cent. Jan. 1915, pp. 42-51.

Belgium under the German heel. By Achille Chainaye.—United Empire, Mar. 1915, pp. 189-96.

Dutch view of Cardinal Mercier's pastoral.—Tablet, 9 Jan. 1915, p. 50.

To his people: the suppressed pastoral [of Cardinal Mercier].—Tablet, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 37-43.

Belgium : History.

Belgique d'aujourd'hui et la Belgique de demaia. By Émile Vandervelde.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 797-802.

Belgium: the story of the brave little state famous as the battleground of Europe. By Richard Le Gallienne.—Munsey's Mag. Feb. 1915, pp. 1-33, illus., maps.

See also ANTWERP; SIEGE OF 1914; EUROPEAN WAR: Atrocities—German.

Belgium : Neutrality.

England and the Low Countries. [International relations regarding Belgian neutrality since 1831.] By J. A. R. Marriott.—Edinb. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-24.

Neutrality of Belgium. By Chas. de Visscher.—Polit. Quart. Feb. 1915, pp. 17-40.

Neutrality of Belgium. By Th. Baty.—Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 202-30, bibliogr.

Neutrality of independent Belgium. By K. Sokolov.—Russkaya Misl. Jan. 1915, pp. 139-64.

Rape of Belgium—and the "plan" that failed. By Sir Thomas Barclay.—19th Cent. Feb. 1915, pp. 257-67.

See also ENGLAND: Foreign Relations—Belgium.

Belgium : Reconstruction.

Reconstruction of Belgium. By H. La Fontaine.—Contemp. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 409-18.

Reconstruction of Belgium. [By two Belgian builders and contractors.]—Builders' JI. 16 June, 1915, pp. 280-1; 23 June, pp. 290-1; 30 June, pp. 302-3; 7 July, pp. 6-7.

Will Belgium revive? By Émile Cammaerts.—Rev. of Reviews, May, 1915, pp. 385-8, illus.

Belgium : War Relief Work in. See EUROPEAN WAR: Relief Measures—Belgium.

Benedict XV. Pope.

Audience for the British Minister [Sir Henry Howard] to the Holy See.—Tablet, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 55-6.

Catholic Church and prisoners of war.—Tablet, 2 Jan. 1915, pp. 19-20.

Italy, the Vatican, and the European war. By Romolo Murri.—Contemp. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 167-76.

Neutrality of the Holy See [in the European war].—Tablet, 9 Jan. 1915, p. 20.

Pope and the belligerents. By E. J. Dillon.—Contemp. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 553-71.

Pope and the [European] war.—Spectator, 17 Apr. 1915, pp. 537-8.

Pope's first encyclical. [A review.] By Sydney F. Smith.—Month, Jan. 1915, pp. 1-9.

Vatican and the war. By R. E. D.—New Statesman, 30 Jan. 1915, pp. 408-9.

Vatican and the war. [Reasons for pro-German and anti-British sympathies.] By Richard Bagot.—Fortn. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 854-64.

Vatican and the war. By Robt. Dell.—Fortn. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 286-95.

Bernhardi (Friedrich von).

[Bernhardi's] forecast and the event [in regard to European war].—Tablet, 2 Jan. 1915, pp. 4-5.

Bismarck (Otto E. L.), Prince von.

Bismarck—and William II. A centenary reflection. By J. E. Barker.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 772-96.

See also GERMANY: Foreign Policy.

Blockade. See EUROPEAN WAR: Naval Warfare; MARITIME LAW: International; UNITED STATES: Foreign Policy—Rights of Neutral Shipping.

Bluecher : Warship. See EUROPEAN WAR: Naval Warfare.

Bosphorus Forts. See TURKEY: Defences.

Boy Scouts.

Boy scouts. By Cecil Price.—Hibbert JI. Apr. 1915, pp. 643-54.

Boy scouts and forests. By K. W. Woodward. [Merit badges are offered in conservation, forestry and surveying, and boys assist in fighting forest fires, especially in Michigan.]—Amer. Forestry, Feb. 1915, pp. 103-9, 10 figs.

Boy scouts in war time. How they play their part in the crisis. By W. Cecil Price.—Fortn. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 296-307.

Bread : Military.

See FRANCE: Army—Organization and Equipment.

British East Africa : Economic Conditions.

Economic development of British East Africa and Uganda. By E. H. M. Leggett.—Jl. Roy. Soc. Arts, 5 Feb. 1915, pp. 209-20 and 257-8, 43 figs.

Bulgaria : Foreign Policy.

Bulgaria and Entente diplomacy. By E. J. Dillon.—Fortn. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 755-66.

Bulgaria's attitude [towards other Balkan States and with regard to joining in the war].—Fortn. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 483-94.

Bulgaria's dream of empire. By T. L. Stoddard.—Century Mag. June, 1915, pp. 251-63.

See also EASTERN QUESTION: Balkan.

Caliphate.

Khalifate. "Peace settlement will have to include guarantees as to the Khalifate and the security of the holy places."—Spectator, 1 May, 1915, pp. 610-1.

Cameroons : Campaign, 1914-15.

Comment fut conquis le Cameroun: d'après le carnet de route d'un troupier qui fit partie de la colonne française [2 Aug. 1914-21 Jan. 1915].—Science et Vie, May, 1915, pp. 849-58, 11 figs.

Canada.

Canada in war time. By O. D. Skelton.—Polit. Quart. May, 1915, pp. 58-69.

Canada : Army—Organization and Equipment.

Bleeding their country. By J. A. S. [Scandals in connexion with army supplies.]—New Statesman, 15 May, 1915, pp. 127-8.

Canada—war measures and politics—increased production—finance and war.—Round Table, Mar. 1915, pp. 422-46.

Canada's place in the war. By J. Obed Smith.—Empire Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 17-25.

Canada : Finance.

Currency and finance in Canada. From a Canadian correspondent.—Econ. JI. June, 1915, pp. 270-3.

Capture at Sea. See MARITIME LAW: International.

Carpathians, War in. See EUROPEAN WAR: Strategy—Eastern Theatre.

Cartels. See TRUSTS: Industrial.

Catholic Church : Pope. See BENEDICT XV. POPE.

Caucasus, War in. See EUROPEAN WAR: Strategy—Caucasus.

Cavalry. See also ENGLAND: Army—Remount Service.

Censorship of the Press. See LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

Chaplains in the English Navy. See ENGLAND: Navy—Chaplains.

Chatalja Lines. See TURKEY: Defences.

Chile : Description and Travel. See also VALPARAISO.

China : Army—Tactics. See also TACTICS.

China : Finance.

Chinese revenue and finance.—Economist, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 54-6.

China : Political History. See EASTERN QUESTION: Far East.

Claims for Compensation for Damage by the European War. See EUROPEAN LAW: Claims.

Clermont. See ARCHITECTURE: France and Belgium.

Coast Defences. In List I.

Cocos-Keeling Islands.

Where the Emden was sunk. By C. M. Salwey.—Asiatic Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 134-42.

Colonies. See under names of Colonies, and of Mother Countries, subhead Colonies.

Commerce. See under name of country, subhead Commerce.

Commercial Law. See MARITIME LAW: International; TRADING WITH THE ENEMY.

Committee of Imperial Defence. See also ENGLAND: Colonies and Dependencies.

Company Law : Alien Shareholders. See ALIENS.

Compulsory Service.

Militarism. [Conscription in belligerent countries.]—Statist, 5 June, 1915, pp. 569-70; 12 June, p. 608.

Origin of conscription. By F. W. H[irst].—Economist, 5 June, 1915, pp. 1160-1.

Compulsory Service: England.

Array the nation. [In favour of compulsory military service.]—Spectator, 22 May, 1915, pp. 706-7.

Arraying the nation [on a National Register].—Spectator, 8 May, 1915, p. 640.

Coming of conscription. By Sir Clement Kinloch-Cooke.—19th Cent. June, 1915, pp. 1296-313.

Compulsory service.—New Statesman, 16 Jan. 1915, pp. 356-7.

Conscription and democracy. By Cecil Battine.—Fortn. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 1043-56.

Labour and compulsory military service. By Brougham Villiers.—Socialist Rev. Jan.-Mar. 1915, pp. 417-28.

National or voluntary service? 'The middle way': a reply to Col. Maude and a proposal. By T. A. Cregan.—19th Cent. Feb. 1915, pp. 278-91.

National or voluntary service? Right and wrong methods of recruiting. By D. C. Lathbury.—19th Cent. Feb. 1915, pp. 292-302.

Politics of war. [Comparison of conditions leading up to compulsion during American Civil War and those in England to-day.]—Round Table, Mar. 1915, pp. 303-24.

Right spirit of concentration. [Registration.]—Spectator, 15 May, 1915, pp. 673-4.

Voluntary or compulsory service? The case for volunteers. By F. N. Maude.—19th Cent. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-12.

Voluntary or compulsory service? An individualist's plea for obligatory service. By George A. B. Dewar.—19th Cent. Jan. 1915, pp. 13-8.

Voluntary or compulsory service? The volunteer spirit. By G. G. Coulton.—19th Cent. Jan. 1915, pp. 19-29.

Voluntary or compulsory service? Wanted: a military constitution. By Cecil Battine.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 803-15.

Voluntary or compulsory service? Compulsory military service in England: a retrospect. By H. B. Simpson.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 816-29.

War census. [Enrolment of the nation for war.]—Spectator, 5 June, 1915, pp. 770-1.

Compulsory Service: United States.

Compulsory service. Mr. Lincoln and compulsion.—Spectator, 16 Jan. 1915, pp. 68-9.

Conscription. See COMPULSORY SERVICE.

Constantinople. See DARDANELLES; EASTERN QUESTION: Balkan, and Constantinople; TURKISH EMPIRE: Defences.

Contraband of War. See MARITIME LAW: International.

Corporation Law. See COMPANY LAW.

Cost and Standard of Living: England.

Cost of living.—Statist, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 205-6.

Cost of living: continued rise [effect of the war].—Statist, 22 May, 1915, pp. 478-9.

See also FOOD SUPPLY.

Cotton Trade.

Lancashire cotton trade: the war crisis and prices.—Economist, 16 Jan. 1915, pp. 99-101.

War and the cotton market. By S. J. Chapman and David Kemp.—Econ. Jl. Mar. 1915, pp. 109-19.

Courts-Martial and Courts of Inquiry.

Admiralty courts-martial. By Lord Selborne.—Empire Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 97-105.

Cracow.

Free and independent Cracow. By Sir Ludovic J. Grant.—Chambers's Jl. May, 1915, pp. 275-8.

Dardanelles.

Crafty, briny river. [Its part in Greek and Roman history.]—Spectator, 22 May, 1915, pp. 710-11.

Straits of Constantinople. By Prince Sergey Gagarin. [Historico-political study.]—Russkaya Misl, Apr. 1915, pp. 96-122; May, pp. 43-66.

See also EUROPEAN WAR: Strategy—Dardanelles.

Declaration of London, 1909. See MARITIME LAW: International.

Declaration of Paris, 1856. See MARITIME LAW: International.

Disarmament.

Initiative in disarmament. By S. V. Bracher.—Socialist Rev. May, 1915, pp. 527-36.

International disarmament. By Arturo Labriola.—Forum, Jan. 1915, pp. 54-7.

Dispatch Riders.

Dispatch riders and military rides. By Harold Macfarlane.—Baily's Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 149-52.

Drill and Minor Tactics.

Psychology of drill.—Spectator, 20 Feb. 1915, pp. 257-8.

See also TACTICS.

Dunkirk.

In Dunkirk. [In winter, 1914-15.] By Alice and Claude Askew.—Fortn. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 138-43.

Dysgenics. See EUGENICS.

Eastern Question: Balkan.

Albania on the Balkan chessboard. By E. Aubry.—Asiatic Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 243-9.

Balkan ententes and alliances. [From the Bulgarian point of view.] By Vlad. Viktorov-Toporov.—Russkaya Misl, Apr. 1915, pp. 123-34.

Balkan States.—Statist, 17 Apr. 1915, pp. 96-7.

Balkan States and the war.—Quart. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 424-38.

Fighting forces of the Balkan States. By H. Charles Wood.—Field, 10 July, 1915, pp. 49-59, 42 illus.

Greece, the Balkans, and the federal principle. By Platon E. Drakoules.—Asiatic Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 113-33.

Marking time in the Balkans. [Balkan attitude toward the war.] By Plinthos.—New Statesman, 15 May, 1915, pp. 125-7.

Problems in the Near East. The territorial ambitions of the Balkan States. By Sir Alfred Sharpe.—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 948-55.

Problems of diplomacy in the Near East [effect of Dardanelles operations]. By Outis.—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 583-91.

Roumania, Bulgaria, and the Dardanelles. By J. M. Kennedy. ["Attitude towards the war now assumed by Bulgaria and Roumania."]—Asiatic Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 233-42.

Turkey, Germany, and the war. By Sir Edwin Pears. [German aims in Turkey, more especially in Turkey in Asia, and the attitude of other Balkan States in regard to the war.]—Contemp. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 284-93.

See also GERMANY: Foreign Policy; and names of States in S.E. Europe.

Eastern Question: Constantinople.

Constantinople, Islam and Russia. [The future of Constantinople.] By A. C. Yate.—United Service Mag. May, 1915, pp. 172-9.

England, Russia and Constantinople [résumé of Anglo-Russian relations during 19th century in regard to Russian control of the Narrows]. By J. B. Firth.—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 644-654.

Future of Constantinople.—Spectator, 6 Mar. 1915, pp. 320-1.

Future of Constantinople. By J. E. Barker.—19th Cent. Mar. 1915, pp. 493-522.

Future of Turkey. By Politicus. [Political and economic reasons for and against Russian control of the Narrows.]—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 604-16.

Eastern Question: Far East.

China and Russia. Tendencies in contemporary China. By V. Severovsky.—Russkaya Misl, Jan. 1915, pp. 32-50.

China and the war. By Sir Francis Pigott.—19th Cent. Mar. 1915, pp. 531-59.

East and West: a new line of cleavage. [Japanese military and naval supremacy in China, and extension of Japanese trade.] By James Davenport Whelpley.—Fortn. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 883-95.

Final expulsion of Germany from China. By Imperialist. [Relations between foreign settlements in the Treaty Ports.]—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 733-40.

German intrigue in China and Japan. By E. Bruce Mitford.—Brit. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 321-9.

Japanese demand on China. By Imperialist. [Changes necessitated by the overthrow of German power in Shantung.]—Fortn. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 1026-34.

Eastern Question: Mid East.

Armenia's true interests and sympathies in the Great War. By F. R. Scatterd.—Asiatic Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 319-24.

Middle East. By Sidney Low. [Causes of Turkey's participation in the European war, and the effect thereof on British influence in Egypt and Persia.]—Edinb. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 328-43, bibliogr.

Partition of Asia Minor. By J. B. Firth.—Fortn. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 795-803.

Egypt: Finance.

War and finance in Egypt. By a correspondent in Egypt.—Econ. Jl. Mar. 1915, pp. 79-96.

Egypt: History.

Egypt, a new chapter in the story of the land of sixty centuries. By Richard Le Gallienne.—Munsey's Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 449-83, illus., maps.

Invasion of Egypt.—Spectator, 30 Jan. 1915, pp. 145-6.

Turks in Egypt. By F. H. Tyrrell.—United Service Mag. Feb. 1915, pp. 518-27.

See also CALIPHATE; EASTERN QUESTION: Mid East.

Emigration. See under names of countries, subhead Emigration, &c.

England: Army.

Great improvisation [of the British army for the European war].—Spectator, 2 Jan. 1915, pp. 5-6.

Miracle of war. By Archibald Hurd. [The military effort of the British race.]—Fortn. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 964-77.

England: Army (continued).

- On the eve. By a sergeant of the first new army. [Training of "Kitchener's Army."]—New Statesman, 29 May, 1915, pp. 177-9.
- Our new armies: a study and a forecast. By C. E. S. Moncrieff.—19th Cent. Mar. 1915, pp. 648-53.
- Problems of to-day and to-morrow. The problem of the discharged soldier. By Arthur Paterson.—19th Cent. May, 1915, pp. 1029-40.
- Training of the new armies: its influence on British thought and imperial destiny. By the Earl of Meath.—United Empire, Feb. 1915, pp. 127-37.
- War and the Highlands. By A. M. E. [Survey of military achievements of the Highlanders.]—Scottish Rev. Spring, 1915, pp. 25-40.
- Warrior ideal. By R. A. Scott-James.—British Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 219-30.

See also EUROPEAN WAR: Armies; INDIA: Army; VOLUNTEER TRAINING CORPS: England.

England: Army—Allowances.

- Allowances to soldiers' dependants. By J. F. W.—New Statesman, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 333-5.
- Three-and-sixpence-worth of happiness. [Happiness that money brings to the working classes. Three-and-sixpence is the allotment paid by soldiers to their wives.]—Spectator, 3 Apr. 1915, pp. 470-1.

England: Army—Cavalry. See also *ENGLAND: Army—Remount Service.England: Army—Guides.

- Dawn on Box Hill. [Night march of the Surrey Guides.]—Spectator, 26 June, 1915, pp. 885-6.

England: Army—Horse. See *ENGLAND: Army—Remount Service; HORSE, MILITARY USE OF.England: Army—Medical and Sanitary Affairs.

- Compulsory inoculation.—Spectator, 13 Feb. 1915, pp. 217-8.

England: Army—Organization and Equipment.

- Army clothing contracts. By James Haslam.—Englishwoman, Mar. 1915, pp. 224-35.
- Asquith, Mr., at Newcastle.—Spectator, 24 Apr. 1915, p. 577.
- Co-operative manufacture of small-arms. The famine in shells. [On the problem of organizing decentralized effort.]—Arms and Explosives, May, 1915, pp. 59-60.
- Essential need. [Abolition during the war of trade-union restrictions, and limitation of profits by employers.]—Spectator, 12 June, 1915, pp. 800-1.
- Feeding the troops at the front. By T. Comyn Platt.—National Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 860-8.
- George, Mr. Lloyd. Speech [as Minister of Munitions, 23 June, 1915].—Spectator, 26 June, 1915, p. 880.
- Government and the war. By Sir Clement Kinloch-Cooke.—Empire Rev. May, 1915, pp. 145-9.
- Industrial reserve. ["How voluntary effort may supplement the efforts of Government and private firms."]—Spectator, 12 June, 1915, pp. 803-4.
- Manufacture of war munitions [problems of organization].—Field, 22 May, 1915, pp. 903-4.
- Munitions of war.—Statist, 24 Apr. 1915, pp. 139-40.
- Organization of war industries.—Spectator, 17 Apr. 1915, p. 536.
- Production of munitions.—Times Engineering Suppt. 25 June, 1915, pp. 117-8.
- Prolonging the war. [The necessity for production of arms and equipment in England.]—Spectator, 20 Mar. 1915, pp. 392-3.
- Reserve of rifles, an essential item in national defence. [Republication of an article of 18 May, 1907.]—Spectator, 13 Feb. 1915, pp. 220-1.
- Thoughts on England's new military power. By Rooinek.—United Service Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 32-8.

See also LIQUOR PROBLEM: England.

England: Army—Physical Standards.

- Admission of men with glasses into the army. By A. A. Bradburne.—British Med. J. 22 May, 1915, pp. 888-9.
- Physical defects met with in the raising of an army. By Sir Thomas Oliver.—Lancet, 24 Apr. 1915, pp. 848-9.
- Tall versus short men for the army. By M. S. Pembrey. [With discussion.]—Jl. Roy. Sanitary Inst. Apr. 1915, pp. 105-13.

England: Army—Recruiting and Enlistment.

- Curzon, Lord. Speech. [Recruiting the new British army.]—Spectator, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 36-7.
- New army and the recruiting. By John B. C. Kershaw.—Fortn. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 308-21.
- Recruiting and the Censorship.—Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 130-58.

See also COMPULSORY SERVICE: England.

England: Army—Remount Service.

- Should we establish remount depôts? By R. S.—Baily's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 128-30.

England: Army—Royal Flying Corps.

- Allocation of Royal Flying Corps units to subordinate commands. By W. S. Brancker. [Lecture delivered June, 1914, 'If we had war to-morrow.'].—Jl. Roy. Artillery, June, 1915, pp. 113-24.
- Progress in aeronautics. By H. Bannerman-Phillips. [British aeronautics during the war.]—United Service Mag. Jan. 1915, pp. 414-24; Feb. pp. 536-47; Mar. pp. 655-62; Apr. pp. 96-105; May, pp. 212-21; June, pp. 341-50.
- Royal Flying Corps on active service. [Extracts from official dispatches from 20 Nov. 1914—23 Jan. 1915.]—Aeron. J. Jan. 1915, pp. 39-1.

England: Army—Sportsman's Battalions.

- Sportsman's Battalions.—Baily's Mag. May, 1915, pp. 225-8.

England: Army—Sportsmen in.

- Polo players at the war.—Baily's Mag. Jan. 1915, pp. 27-30.
- Sportsmen who have heard the call [to the army]. By Sprinter.—Baily's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 101-6; Apr. pp. 153-6.
- What hunting men have done for Britain. [In the European war.]—Baily's Mag. May, 1915, pp. 197-225, illus. por.
- Yachtsmen and the [European] war. By Francis B. Cooke.—Baily's Mag. June, 1915, pp. 249-51.

England: Colonies and Dependencies—Imperial Questions.

- Committee of Imperial Defence. By H. E. Egerton.—Polit. Quart. Feb. 1915, pp. 56-68.
- Dominions and the peace settlement. By H. E. Egerton.—United Empire, June, 1915, pp. 425-31.
- Dominions and the settlement. A plea for conference.—Round Table, Mar. 1915, pp. 325-44.
- Dominions and the war.—Empire Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 311-5.
- Empire after the war. By Vance Palmer.—British Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 161-72.
- Empire and the war. By Spenser Wilkinson.—United Empire, Mar. 1915, pp. 214-24.
- Empire in arms. By Donald Macmaster.—Empire Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 1-8.
- Expansion of Britain's imperial relations with the overseas dominions resulting from the war. By Henry A. Ellis.—United Empire, Jan. 1915, pp. 56-67.
- Family council. By J. A. R. Marriott. [Representation of the colonies at the peace conference.]—19th Cent. May, 1915, pp. 965-86.
- Imperial Defence Committee. By H. E. Egerton.—Polit. Quart. Feb. 1915, pp. 56-68.
- Romance and rally of the empire. By Edward Salmon.—United Empire, Apr. 1915, pp. 285-98.

See also under names of Colonies.

England: Commerce and Industries.

- British overseas commerce in war-time. By Cuthbert Maughan.—Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 252-65.
- England's "commercial war" on Germany: a conversation in Spain. Communicated by E. M. Whishaw.—19th Cent. Feb. 1915, pp. 445-51.
- Expansion of British industry after the war. By Octavius Charles Beale. [Proposes the formation of a Manufacturers' Association to represent the producers of Great Britain as distinguished from the importers of foreign goods. Chiefly from an Australian standpoint.]—Jl. Roy. Soc. Arts, 5 Feb. 1915, pp. 221-31.
- Industrial situation.—Spectator, 27 Mar. 1915, pp. 431-2.
- Labour and the war. By J. H. Harley. [Industrial conditions before and during the war.]—Contemp. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 90-8.
- New markets for British goods.—Empire Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 303-6.
- War and British industry. By Sir L. G. Chiozza Money. [On encouragement of industries previously chiefly in German hands.]—Fortn. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 527-37.
- War and industrial organization.—Round Table, June, 1915, pp. 559-88.
- War and the textile industries. By S. J. Chapman and David Kemp.—Jl. Roy. Statist Soc. Mar. 1915, pp. 157-237.
- War and trade.—New Statesman, 3 Apr., 1915, pp. 629-30.
- England: Constitution. See ENGLAND: Politics and Government.
- England: Diplomatic and Consular Service. See BENEDICT XV., POPE.
- England: Economic Conditions and Policy.
- Economic quackery. [Labour and the rise in prices.]—Spectator, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 103-5.
- Possibilities of thrift [during the European war].—Spectator, 10 Apr. 1915, pp. 500-1.
- State control of prices and production in time of war. By W. T. Layton.—Polit. Quart. May, 1915, pp. 70-85.

England: Finance.

- Budget.—Spectator, 8 May, 1915, pp. 641-2.
- Finance and the war.—Candid Quart. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 409-27.
- Financial emergency. ["The country has not yet sufficiently realized that there is a financial as well as a military emergency to be faced." Gives examples of how increased revenue might be obtained.]—Spectator, 5 June, 1915, pp. 771-2.

England: Finance (continued).

- Financial outlook.—Spectator, 3 Apr. 1915, pp. 467-9.
 Government note issue. By Sir R. H. Palgrave.—Bankers' Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 588-94.
 How the war is financed. By H. J. Jennings.—Fortn. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 1081-90.
 Money for war and money for peace. By Sir L. G. Chiozza Money.—New Statesman, 3 Apr. 1915, pp. 635-6.
 New war loan.—Spectator, 26 June, 1915, pp. 882-3.
 Plea for posterity. ["The nation ought to consider what sacrifices it can to-day make so as to diminish the burden handed on to posterity."]—Spectator, 6 Mar. 1915, pp. 323-5.
 Reformed income tax. By J. E. Allen.—Fortn. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 341-7.
 Taxing wages and war profits.—Spectator, 19 June, 1915, pp. 840-1.
 War and our public finances. By W. M. J. Williams.—British Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 44-58.
 War finance.—Candid Quart. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 93-105.
 Ways and means.—New Statesman, 19 June, 1915, pp. 244-5.

See also BANKS AND BANKING: England; INVESTMENTS: England; LIQUOR TRAFFIC: Taxation.

England: Foreign Policy.

- War, the British empire and America. [Deals with growth of imperial unity, and advocates Anglo-American treaty to secure peace of the world.]—Forum, May, 1915, pp. 548-66.
 See also GREY (SIR EDWARD).

England: Foreign Relations—Belgium.

- Bond between England and Belgium. By Herbert Thurston.—Month, Feb. 1915, pp. 140-54.
 See also BELGIUM: Neutrality.

England: Foreign Relations—Germany.

- British and German policy [foreign and colonial]. By J. Holland Rose.—Fortn. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 371-81.
 Did Britain stand in Germany's way? By Sir H. H. Johnston.—New Statesman, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 435-6.
 European diplomacy: Bismarck to Sir Edward Grey.—Round Table, June, 1915, pp. 626-49.
 Haldaniam in high places.—National Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 869-916.
 Round about the Great War. [The attitude of the Opposition.] By L. J. Maxse.—National Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 725-46.

England: Foreign Relations—Netherlands.

- England and the Low Countries. By J. A. R. Marriott. [Sketch of England's continuous and friendly relations with Belgium, Holland and Flanders since the eleventh century.]—Edinb. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-24, bibliogr.
 See also BELGIUM: Neutrality.

England: Foreign Relations—Russia.

- Friendship of Russia. By Arnold White.—National Rev. June, 1915, pp. 517-31.
 Our alliance with Russia.—New Statesman, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 332-3.
 See also EASTERN QUESTION: Constantinople.

England: Industries. See ENGLAND: Commerce and Industries.England: Navy.

- Board of Admiralty. By James R. Thursfield.—Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 56-65, 202-13, bibliogr.
 Duties of the British navy. By R. A. Fletcher.—Chambers's J. L. Jan. 1915, pp. 12-16.
 Economic triumph of British sea-power. By Excubitor. [In defence of Lord Fisher's policy of "scrapping" out-of-date cruisers.]—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 617-30.
 War work of the navy. By H. F. Wyatt.—United Empire, Mar. 1915, pp. 176-83, illus.
 What has the British navy done? By Archibald Hurd.—Fortn. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 394-407.
 Work of the navy in the war. By H. W. Wilson.—United Empire, May, 1915, pp. 332-41.
 See also COURTS-MARTIAL, &c.

England: Navy—Chaplains.

- Catholic chaplains in the British navy.—Tablet, 2 Jan. 1915, p. 7.

England: Navy—Marines.

- Royal Marines. By Lord Latymer.—National Rev. May, 1915, pp. 372-80.
 See also ANTWERP, SIEGE OF 1914.

England: Politics and Government.

- British Cabinet. By A. C. Gardiner.—Atlantic Mthly. May, 1915, pp. 672-82.
 British policy and the war. By Henry W. Massingham.—Atlantic Mthly. Jan. 1915, pp. 116-23.
 Cabinet and the critical days.—British Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 344-57.
 Cabinet and the nation.—Polit. Quart. May, 1915, pp. 1-16.
 Discredited State: thoughts on politics before the war. By E. Barker.—Polit. Quart. Feb. 1915, pp. 101-21.
 Duty of criticism [of the Government by the Opposition].—Spectator, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 185-6.

England: Politics and Government (continued).

- Duty of an Opposition during the war. By Arthur A. Baumann. [Attitude of British opposition parties, past and present.]—Fortn. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 1035-42.
 Emergency measures [during European war]. By Harold Cox.—Edinb. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 422-37.
 Function of the British empire. [To use its reserve power against any nation which aims at predominance.]—Times Lit. Suppt. 17 June, 1915, p. 20.
 Government and the war: a Liberal's view. By L. A. Atherley-Jones.—19th Cent. June, 1915, pp. 1429-41.
 Government that went to war. By Ian D. Colvin.—National Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 52-64.
 Irish disaffection [Irish support during the war].—New Statesman, 26 June, 1915, pp. 272-4.
 Kitchener, Lord, and some other matters. By L. J. Maxse.—National Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 197-296.
 Little men in a great war. By L. J. Maxse.—National Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 73-135.
 Man in the street and the man in the Cabinet. ("Round about the great war" series, No. V.) By L. J. Maxse.—National Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 719-24.
 Meeting of Parliament. [Need for unity between Government and Opposition.]—Spectator, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 105-6.
 Ministers in war-time. [Brief notes on work of principal ministers.]—Fortn. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 17-28.
 National Government. [The Coalition Cabinet.]—Spectator, 22 May, 1915, p. 704; 29 May, pp. 736-7.
 War and domestic politics.—Quart. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 555-64.

England: War Relief Measures. See BELGIAN REFUGEES, &c.; EUROPEAN WAR: Relief Measures—England.English Literature.

- Our literature and the war. ["How will our literature... be affected by the war?"]—Times Lit. Suppt. 13 May, 1915, p. 157.

English Prisoners of War. See PRISONERS OF WAR.Epidemics in War. See EUROPEAN WAR: Medical and Sanitary Affairs.Eugenics: War in relation to.

- Dysgenics of war. By C. W. Saleeby. ["Military selection of the fittest for war is 'reversed selection,' killing the better to save the worse."]—Contemp. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 331-8.
 Eugenics and War. [Second Galton Lecture, 16 Feb. 1915.] By J. Arthur Thomson.—Pop. Sci. Mthly. May, 1915, pp. 417-27.

Europe: Description and Travel.

- Cruise in France, Belgium and Holland, with some notes on the waterways leading to the principal battlefields of the present war.—Motor Boat, 25 Feb. 1915, pp. 151-2; 4 Mar. pp. 166-7; 11 Mar. pp. 185-6; 18 Mar. pp. 204-5; 25 Mar. pp. 218-9; 1 Apr. p. 237, 12 figs.

European War.

- Aspects of the war with the Boches. By L. J. Maxse.—National Rev. May, 1915, pp. 393-455.
 Can Germany be beaten?—N. Amer. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 807-11.
 Cobb, Irvin, picture of the great war. Reprinted from the New York press.—Munsey's Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 522-8, illus.
 Development of Armageddon. By L. J. Maxse. [Political aspects of the war in various countries.]—National Rev. June, 1915, pp. 532-632.
 Effects of the war upon non-Christian peoples. By George H. Frodsham.—19th Cent. Jan. 1915, pp. 159-67.
 Greatest of games. By Ignotus.—Badminton Mag. Jan. 1915, pp. 11-21, illus.
 Some lessons from the war.—Statist, 27 Mar. 1915, pp. 502-3; 3 Apr. pp. 16-7; 10 Apr. pp. 57-8.
 Thoughts on the waging of "great war." By Spenser Wilkinson.—19th Cent. Jan. 1915, pp. 30-41.
 True story of the war. By G. W. Redway.—British Rev. Jan. 1915, et seq.
 War, The: a British view. By Sir Oliver Lodge.—N. Amer. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 45-51.
 War, The, and the new year.—Spectator, 2 Jan. 1915, pp. 4-5.
 War, The, from an American point of view. By George B. McLellan.—Scribner's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 359-67.
 War silhouettes. By Ignotus.—Badminton Mag. May, 1915, pp. 87-91.
 Wilson, President, neutrality: an American view. By Lindsay Rogers.—Contemp. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 602-9.

European War: Aerial Warfare—England.

- King's Lynn: the air raid.—Spectator, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 100-1.
 Trial runs [of Zeppelins over England].—Spectator, 22 May, 1915, pp. 708-9.
 Yarmouth: the air raid.—Spectator, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 100-1.
 Zeppelin raid on London [31 May, 1915].—Spectator, 5 June, 1915, pp. 769-70.

European War: Aerial Warfare—Germany.

Raid on Cuxhaven.—Spectator, 2 Jan. 1915, pp. 8-9.

European War: Armies.

War strength of Germany, Great Britain and France. By W. H. Mallock.—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 631-43.

See also under names of countries, subhead Army.

European War: Armies—Organization and Equipment.

Clothing the Allies' armies. By G. R. Carter.—Econ. Jl. Mar. 1915, pp. 97-103.

European War: Atrocities—Austrian.

Austrian atrocities. By Prince Alexis of Serbia.—Nash's and Pall Mall, June, 1915, p. 393.

European War: Atrocities—German.

Belgium. A dishonoured army. [The report of Lord Bryce's committee.] By R. S. Nolan.—19th Cent. June, 1915, pp. 1234-8.

Conduct of the German soldiery. By Wilfrid Ward.—Dublin Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 30-56.

Dishonoured army. German atrocities in France: with unpublished records. By J. H. Morgan.—19th Cent. June, 1915, pp. 1213-33.

German atrocities on record. [Belgian, French and Russian evidence. Extracts from German soldiers' letters.]—Field, 13 Feb. Suppt. 32 pp. illus.

German outrages in Belgium.—Spectator, 15 May, 1915, pp. 674-6. Piteous story: Aerschot, August, 1914. By E. D. Rendall.—Cornhill Mag. Feb. 1915, pp. 188-95.

Récit d'un professeur de Louvain réfugié en Angleterre. [With English translation.]—Hibbert Jl. Jan. 1915, pp. 271-83.

European War: Bibliography.

Books on the world war.—History, Jan.-Mar. 1915, pp. 20 and 58.

European War: Causes.

African roots of war. By W. E. B. Dubois. ["Partition of Africa is a prime cause" of the war.]—Atlantic Mthly. May, 1915, pp. 707-14.

Battle of the diplomats. By E. J. Dillon. [Lack of moral and historic sense characterizing the diplomatic campaign of Germany before and since the war began.]—Contemp. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 29-48.

Causes économiques de la guerre. By Yves Guyot.—Jl. des Économistes, Jan.-Apr. 1915.

Christianity and war. By Agnes Repplier.—Atlantic Mthly. Jan. 1915, pp. 6-14.

Germany's answer. By Hans Delbrück. [Pro-German account of the causes of the war.]—Atlantic Mthly. Feb. 1915, pp. 233-42.

How it looks to a German [the Allies' policy].—Spectator, 17 Apr. 1915, pp. 533-4.

Ideals at stake. By A. J. Rahilly. [Ethical causes of the war.]—Studies, Mar. 1915, pp. 16-32.

Indecision. [Less indecision on the part of the English Government might have prevented the war.]—Candid Quart. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 249-58.

Origines de la guerre. [German political and industrial history.] Par Gabriel Hanotaux.—Science et Vie, Jan. 1915, pp. 291-5.

Reventlow, Count, on war and politics. By J. H. Rose. [A German historian's explanation of the war. Summary of epilogue (1 Jan. 1915) to Reventlow's, 'Deutschlands auswärtige Politik.'—Cambridge Rev. 19 May, 1915, pp. 324-5.

Schism of Europe. [How autocracy triumphed in Germany between 1848-70 and how it has corrupted German politics ever since.]—Round Table, Mar. 1915, pp. 345-411.

Tampering with war. [International relations preceding the war.]—Candid Quart. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 7-26.

Through German eyes. By K. Hahn. [Letter from K. Hahn to Lord Sandon.—Oxford Mag. 22 Jan. 1915, pp. 142-3.

View from India on the war. Part I. By S. R.—Asiatic Rev. May, 1915, pp. 369-74.

War: its origin and causes. By W. M. Crook.—London Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-14.

See also NATIONALISM AND NATIONALITY.

European War: Claims—France.

Indemnités aux départements envahis. By Auguste Souchon.—Bull Soc. Encouragement, Jan.-Feb. 1915, pp. 96-100.

European War: Claims—German.

Kriegsschädenersatz und Schutz der deutschen Auslandsforderungen. By Fr. Frölich.—Technik und Wirtschaft, June, 1915, pp. 232-9.

European War: Economic and Social Aspects.

Cost to humanity. By H. W. Horwill. [Losses inflicted by the war on science, art, religion, &c.]—Atlantic Mthly. Mar. 1915, pp. 417-26.

Economic conditions of enemy countries. By H. J. Jennings.—Quart. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 370-92.

European War: Economic and Social Aspects (continued).

Economic geography in connexion with the war. [In relation to trade of Germany and the United Kingdom.] By George G. Chisholm.—Scot. Geogr. Mag. Feb. 1915, pp. 82-93, 8 tab.; Mar. pp. 123-36, 9 tab.

Economic strain on England and on Germany: a comparison. By Arthur S. Maitland.—19th Cent. June, 1915, pp. 1325-34.

Friendship and the war. By Ignota. [Increased activities due to the war have interfered with social intercourse.]—Spectator, 10 Apr. 1915, pp. 501-2.

Labour and the war. ["Power of Capital and powerlessness of social democracy."] By J. M. Kennedy.—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 722-32.

Social democracy and peace. By H. M. Hyndman.—Fortn. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 408-22.

Social effects of the war. By L. T. Hobhouse.—Atlantic Mthly. Apr. 1915, pp. 544-50.

Trade and industry in the war. By A. Shadwell.—Edinb. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 151-77.

Understudies. ["Almost every one is doing some work that is new to him, from the bus-conductor to the man in the public office."]—Spectator, 20 Mar. 1915, pp. 399-400.

War and after. By Émile Boutroux. [Moral effects of the war.]—Contemp. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 781-8.

War and social democracy. By W. H. Mallock.—Fortn. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 193-204.

War in its effect on work and wages. By J. A. Hobson.—Fortn. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 144-54.

European War: Finance.

Abandonment of the gold standard. By J. S. Nicholson. [Paper money, &c.]—Quart. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 409-23.

Can the loser pay? By Hilaire Belloc.—Nash's and Pall Mall, Feb. 1915, pp. 514-19.

Cost of the war. By Edgar Crammond.—Jl. Roy. Statist. Soc. May, 1915, pp. 361-413.

Cost of the war to Europe.—Economist, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 50-1.

Emergency measures in war-time. By J. Watson Grice.—United Empire, Jan. 1915, pp. 39-43.

Finance in war.—Round Table, June, 1915, pp. 521-58.

Finance of the war.—Spectator, 20 Feb. 1915, pp. 254-5.

Financial arrangements and the war debts of Europe.—Economist, 13 Feb. 1915, pp. 262-3.

Germany's crime. [Enormous expenditure caused by Germany in forcing on the war.]—Statist, 1 May, 1915, pp. 200-1.

Gold reserves and financial exhaustion.—Economist, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 220-2.

Great crisis: viii. Our Allies and finance.—Banker's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 369-79.

Holden, Sir Edward, and the financial situation. [Speech by] Sir Edward Holden.—Empire Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 9-16.

Reforms in war taxation. By L. N. Jasnopolsky.—Russkaya Misl, Feb. 1915, pp. 1-23.

Reichsbank and the Bank of England.—Statist, 16 Jan. 1915, pp. 96-7.

War and Austro-German finance. By Brougham Villiers.—Contemp. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 584-92.

War and the world's money markets. By Sir Edward H. Holden.—Statist, Suppt. 30 Jan., 1915, 8 pp.

War finance. [In European countries.] By E. J. Dillon.—Contemp. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 294-311.

See also BANKS AND BANKING; and under names of countries, subhead Finance.

European War: Geography.

Notes on the historical and physical geography of the theatres of war. [West and East fronts.] By Vaughan Cornish.—Geogr. Jl. May, 1915, pp. 371-84, maps.

European War: Geography—Balkans.

Geography of the war theatre in the Near East. By D. G. Hogarth.—Geogr. Jl. June, 1915, pp. 457-71, illus.

European War: Geography—Western Theatre.

Geography of the war [chiefly in relation to the attack on Paris]. By Hilaire Belloc.—Geogr. Jl. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-15, 3 maps.

European War: Indemnity. See EUROPEAN WAR: Claims.*European War: Medical and Sanitary Affairs.

Seasonal prevalence of epidemic diseases in war. By William Hill-Climo.—United Service Mag. May, 1915, pp. 201-4.

European War: Naval Warfare.

Aspects of the naval war. By Percival A. Hislam.—United Service Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 573-87.

Bluecher, Sinking of the. Letter from H.M.S. Tiger. By K. G. Reid.—Cambridge Rev. 10 Feb. 1915, p. 188.

Failure of the raiders. [The loss to British commerce caused by the German cruisers.]—N. Amer. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 658-61.

How we are blockading Germany.—Spectator, 20 Mar. 1915, pp. 394-5.

European War: Naval Warfare (continued).

Naval patience. [Tactics of the Home Fleet.]—Spectator, 16 Jan. 1915, pp. 69-70.

Running fight in the North Sea.—Spectator, 30 Jan. 1915, pp. 144-5.

Sea strategy in the worldwide war. By Carlyon Bellairs.—Contemp. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-11.

War by water. By A. H. Pollen.—Land and Water. Series commencing 8 May, 1915. In progress.

See also UNITED STATES: Foreign Policy, and under Names of Naval Battles, e.g., Falkland Islands, &c.

European War: Naval Warfare—Submarine.

Are the Germans pirates? By George S. Baker.—19th Cent. June, 1915, pp. 1384-9.

Blockade by terror. [Criticism of Germany's "blockade" by submarines.]—Spectator, 20 Feb. 1915, pp. 253-4.

German submarine policy.—Spectator, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 184-5.

New "day" and merchant shipping. [German blockade.]—Spectator, 13 Feb. 1915, pp. 216-7.

Pirates' blockade. By James Armstrong.—World's Work, Mar. 1915, pp. 363-5.

Threat of Grand Admiral von Tirpitz. [To torpedo merchant shipping.]—Spectator, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 40-1.

Verluste der feindlichen Handelsmarine an der englischen Küste . . von 18 Febr. bis 18 Mai, 1915.—Berliner Lokal Anzeiger, 2 Beiblatt, May, 1915. [Chart of 111 ships sunk by submarines, with their names and tonnage.]

European War: Neutral Countries.

Italy and the others. ["Sad plight of certain timorous neutrals, and the warm welcome awaiting others."]—World's Work, June, 1915, pp. 23-8.

Outlook for neutrals. By Sir John Macdonell, K.C.B.—Contemp. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 448-56.

Scandinavian countries and the war. By S. J. Castberg. [Relations existing between Sweden, Norway, and Denmark, their attitude towards the belligerents, and the measures taken to safeguard their neutrality.]—Contemp. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 202-208.

European War: Peace Proposals and Final Settlement.

After the war: the settlement in Germany.—Candid Quart. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 429-41.

Aims of the French. By R. E. D.—New Statesman, 6 Mar. 1915, pp. 526-8.

American peace dreams. By Lewis Erinstein.—National Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 837-50.

Chatter about peace.—Spectator, 19 June, 1915, pp. 836-7.

Considerations on the future settlement.—New Statesman, 2 Jan. 1915, pp. 308-9.

Duty of the Allies. [To see to it that at the end of the war Germany must cease to exist.]—New Statesman, 15 May, 1915, pp. 124-5.

Europe and the problem of nationality. By W. Alison Phillips. ["Examines . . . the claim of the principle of nationalities to be the only basis of a territorial settlement that shall give guarantees for permanent peace."]—Edinb. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 25-43.

Europe's dynastic slaughterhouse. By William J. Roe. [Forecast of results of the European war.]—Pop. Sci. Mthly. Jan. 1915, pp. 63-75.

Folly of early offers of peace. By J. Holland Rose.—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 693-704.

Foundations of peace.—Round Table, June, 1915, pp. 589-625.

Germany, Africa, and the terms of peace. By Sir Harry H. Johnston. [Advocates exclusion of Germans from Africa, and shows that German ambition in regard to Morocco was a principal cause of the war.]—19th Cent. Apr. 1915, pp. 752-67.

Germany's terms. By Hans Delbrück. [Germany's colonial aims, chiefly in Africa.]—Atlantic Mthly. Apr. 1915, pp. 525-33.

Grey, Sir Edward, on peace conditions.—Spectator, 27 Mar. 1915, pp. 429-30.

Is a permanent peace possible? By Bertrand Russell. [Transfer of territory to accord with wishes of inhabitants. Council for adjusting international disputes to be set up, whose deliberations should be public and backed up by strong pacific public opinion.]—Atlantic Mthly. Mar. 1915, pp. 367-76.

Martial calendar. Is Germany manoeuvring for a tolerable peace?—World's Work, Mar. 1915, pp. 303-6.

Nationality and the new Europe. By Archibald C. Coolidge. [Nationality versus annexation of land.]—Yale Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 447-61.

Neutrals and the rights of nationality. [Nationality versus annexation of land.]—Spectator, 24 Apr. 1915, p. 576.

Open letter to the American people. By H. W. Massingham. [Co-operation of United States suggested for establishment of international control to preserve peace of the world.]—Atlantic Mthly. May, 1915, pp. 701-6.

European War: Peace Proposals and Final Settlement (continued).

Plea for international law. By F. F. Urquhart. [Deals with repartition of Europe.]—Dublin Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 312-25.

Problèmes de la paix. By Yves Guyot.—Jl. des Économistes, Feb. 1915, pp. 97-112.

Types of political frontiers in Europe. By Prof. L. W. Lyde. [Principles guiding the repartition of Europe after the war.]—Geogr. Jl. Feb. 1915, pp. 126-45.

United States and the peace treaty. By Oswald Garrison Villard.—N. Amer. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 380-9.

United States of Europe: some historic proposals. By Francis Johnson. [Partition of Europe after the war.]—Socialist Rev. Jan.-Mar. 1915, pp. 451-65.

War and the way out. By G. Lowes Dickinson. [International control to preserve the world's peace.]—Atlantic Mthly. Apr. 1915, pp. 516-24; May, pp. 691-700.

War, women, and the Hague. By P. W. Wilson.—Englishwoman, May, 1915, pp. 97-108.

Watchman, what of the night? By Harold Spender. [What hopes are there of peace?]—Contemp. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 209-19.

What next? By E. Lyttelton. [Repartition of Europe.]—Hibbert Jl. Jan. 1915, pp. 261-70.

What the nature of the peace will be. By Yves Guyot.—N. Amer. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 175-90.

When the war comes to an end.—Statist, 8 May, 1915, pp. 250-1.

See also EASTERN QUESTION: Asia Minor; ENGLAND: Colonies and Dependencies; NATIONALISM AND NATIONALITY; NAVIES, INTERNATIONALIZATION OF.

European War: Personal Experiences.

Adventures of a despatch rider.—Blackwood's Mag. May, 1915, pp. 577-612; June, pp. 842-59.

Diary of a subaltern.—Blackwood's Mag. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-15; Feb. pp. 141-55; Mar. pp. 356-68; Apr. pp. 476-85.

From the front—home. By a British officer.—N. Amer. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 390-7.

Pages of war. [Description of life at the front.] By Miles.—Spectator, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 107-8; 27 Feb. pp. 293-4.

War documents from the fighting line. [Reprints of letters, &c., published in the daily newspapers.]—Candid Quart. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 161-84; May, pp. 385-407.

European War: Psychology.

Changing mind of a nation at war. By L. P. Jacks. [Our changing attitude of mind to the intellectual culture of Germany.]—Atlantic Mthly. Apr. 1915, pp. 534-44.

England's experience with "the real thing." By L. P. Jacks. [Effect of the war on the mental attitude of England.]—Yale Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 433-46.

Grande nation. By J. O. P. Bland. [Effects on the morals of the French.]—Atlantic Mthly. Feb. 1915, pp. 242-51.

War and the [British] national temper. By Sir W. Ryland Adkins.—Contemp. Rev., Feb. 1915, pp. 137-47.

See also EUROPEAN WAR: Causes.

European War: Relief Measures.

Relief of war distress. By H. Wilson Harris.—Contemp. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 58-66.

Woman's relief in past wars. By K. W. Lundie.—Englishwoman, Feb. 1915, pp. 123-32.

European War: Relief Measures—Belgium.

Relief for starving Belgium. By Bernard Vaughan.—Tablet, 9 Jan. 1915, p. 50.

Rhodes scholar in Belgium. By F. H. Gailor. [Relief of Belgian distress under the American commission.]—Cornhill Mag. May, 1915, pp. 678-91.

European War: Relief Measures—England.

Alien enemy within our gates. ["The relief and assistance of destitute aliens."] By Arthur Paterson.—19th Cent. Mar. 1915, pp. 654-65.

Fifth million. [Administration of the National Relief Fund.]—New Statesman, 1 May, 1915, pp. 77-9.

Secours en temps de guerre et les abus qu'ils entraînent. By Daniel Bellet.—Jl. des Économistes, Feb. 1915, pp. 121-36.

Soldier's wife: a liberal view. By H. Wilson Harris.—Englishwoman, Feb. 1915, pp. 97-105.

European War: Strategy.

Conduct of the war by land and sea.—Candid Quart. Rev. Feb. 1915, pp. 201-47; May, pp. 443-76.

Eleven months' retrospect.—Statist, 26 June, 1915, pp. 707-8.

Germany's original plan of campaign. By Herbert Thurston. [Description of a German document found in Feb. 1914, by a French officer.]—Month, Jan. 1915, pp. 28-38.

Higher strategy and the war. By Centurion.—British Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-12.

European War: Strategy (continued).

History of the war.—Fortn. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 169-79; Feb. pp. 358-69; Mar. pp. 554-64; Apr. pp. 741-53; May, pp. 925-36; June, pp. 1110-21, maps.

Military situation. [Second battle of Ypres, and situation in Dardanelles.]—Spectator, 1 May, 1915, pp. 609-10.

New conditions in war as seen from the German side. By James F. J. Archibald.—Scribner's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 347-58, portr. illus.

"Planmaessig" and "Ausgeschlossen": the march on Paris, the march on Warsaw, and the march on London. By Hendrik van Loon.—Cent. Mag. June, 1915, pp. 219-24.

Theatre of the war.—Spectator, 9 Jan. 1915, pp. 38-9.

War, The. By Spenser Wilkinson. The naval side of the war. By David Hannay.—Field, 10 Apr. 1915, pp. 635-6.

War [progress of].—Quart. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 87-129, 282-312; Apr. pp. 581-610.

War, The, by land. By Hilaire Belloc.—Land and Water. Series commencing 22 Aug. 1914. In progress.

War, The—so far.—Candid Quart. Rev. May, 1915, pp. 269-89.

War in France (cont.): iv. A glance at the Levant; v. After six months of war; vi. Roumania and the Allies; vii. The diary of a French soldier; viii. The voice of France. By Paul Parsy.—British Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 29-43; Feb. pp. 198-218; Mar. pp. 372-90; Apr. pp. 24-51; May, pp. 208-35.

See also EUROPEAN WAR: Geography.

European War: Strategy—Caucasus.

Battle of Opatow. Russian leadership. Brilliant rearguard action. By Stanley Washburn.—Times, 3 July, 1915, p. 7, 3 maps.

Campaign in the Caucasus. By Robert Machray.—Fortn. Rev. Mar. 1915, pp. 458-71, map.

European War: Strategy—Dardanelles, 1915.

Attack on the Dardanelles.—Spectator, 27 Feb. 1915, p. 288.

Battle of the longest day: immortal 29th Division. By Compton Mackenzie.—Times, 2 July, 1915, p. 7.

British advance in Gallipoli. Sir Ian Hamilton's Report.—Times, 2 July, 1915.

Dardanelles. By F. N. Maude.—Contemp. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 732-42.

Dardanelles and the Committee of Imperial Defence. By a naval correspondent. [Had these operations been considered by the Committee?—National Rev. May, 1915, pp. 448-55.]

Fight for Achi Baba: Lancashire landing. By Compton Mackenzie.—Times, 16 June, 1915, p. 7.

Hamilton, Sir Ian. Dispatch. [Covering operations up to 5 May.]—Times, 7 July, 1915.

Mass attacks by the Turks. By E. Ashmead Bartlett.—Times, 15 July, 1915, p. 6.

Operations at the Dardanelles. By H. Charles Woods.—Fortn. Rev. June, 1915, pp. 1003-13.

Turkish losses in Gallipoli: valour of Dominion troops. By Ashmead Bartlett.—Times, 23 June, 1915, p. 7.

What has happened at the Dardanelles. [The failure of the Greek army to co-operate on land.]—New Statesman, 17 Apr. 1915, pp. 28-9.

See also EASTERN QUESTION: Balkan; EUROPEAN WAR: Geography—Balkans.

European War: Strategy—Eastern Theatre.

Carpathes [intérêt stratégique et description géologique]. By L. de Launay.—Rev. Gén. des Sci. 30 Apr. 1915, pp. 238-44, 1 fig.

Eastern battle deeds: a letter from Russia. By Robert Crozier Long.—Fortn. Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-16, map.

Fighting in the Carpathians as seen with the Austrian army. By James F. J. Archibald.—Scribner's Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 453-66, illus.

Przemysl, importance of [the fall].—Spectator, 27 Mar. 1915, p. 430.

Przemysl, Siege of.—New Statesman, 27 Mar. 1915, pp. 605-6.

Teuton-Slav contest in Eastern Europe. By A. Wyatt Tilby.—United Empire, Mar. 1915, pp. 183-9.

Two battle fronts: a letter from Warsaw. [Poland and Galicia.] By Robert Crozier Long.—Fortn. Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 568-82.

European War: Strategy—Western Theatre.

Accounts by an eyewitness present at British headquarters.—Times, Morning Post, &c., Jan. 1915, 1, 4, 8, 11, 15, 19, 26, 29; Feb. 1, 3, 8, 10, 13, 15, 19, 25, 27; Mar. 1, 4, 6, 9, 12, 19, 23, 24, 25, 29; Apr. 1, 6, 7, 9, 13, 17, 21, 23, 24, 26, 30; May 3, 6, 10, 12, 13, 17, 24, 28, 31; June 3, 8, 10, 15, 21, 22, 29, in continuation of articles beginning 31 Aug. 1914, but appearing on 25 Sept. for the first time under signature of Eyewitness. [From Sept. 1914 to Mar. 1915, since reprinted and published by Edward Arnold.]

European War: Strategy—Western Theatre (continued).

Achievement of France: i. The avalanche; ii. The check; iii. The northern gate; iv. War of attrition; v. France and Britain.—Times, 21 June, pp. 9-10; 22 June, p. 7; 24 June, p. 7; 28 June, p. 7; 1 July, p. 7.

France at war—and after.—World's Work, Jan. 1915, pp. 117-22.

French, Sir John. Dispatches.—Times, 1915, 17 Feb., 15 Apr., 12 July, in continuation of dispatches published on 11 Sept. and 30 Nov., 1914.

Germany's great failure. By Lancelot Lawton.—Dublin Rev. Jan. 1915, pp. 1-29.

In French Lorraine. By H. W. Allen.—Cornhill Mag. May, 1915, pp. 601-13.

Line of the Rhine. By Hilaire Belloc.—Nash's and Pall Mall, Apr. 1915, pp. 131-7, 248-50, 8 diagrams.

Soldiers' battle: the second fight for Ypres, 22 Apr.-13 May. By John Buchan.—Times, 13 July, 1915, pp. 7-8.

With Rawlinson in Belgium. By C. Underwood.—Blackwood's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 279-310.

With the Belgian army on the Yser. By Émile Cammaerts.—Rev. of Reviews, Feb. 1915, pp. 107-11.

Evolution. See also WAR.

Exchanges, Foreign. See FOREIGN EXCHANGES.

Explosives: Military. In List I.

Falkland Islands, Battle of.

Battle of the Falkland Islands. By a midshipman in H.M.S. Carnarvon.—Cornhill Mag. Apr. 1915, pp. 541-50.

Battle of the Falkland Islands. By Eric Wharton. [Letter describing the battle.]—Oxford Mag. 26 Feb. 1915, pp. 223-5.

Battle of the Falklands. By W. R. C. Steele.—Empire Rev. Apr. 1915, pp. 106-13.

Far East. See EASTERN QUESTION: Far East.

Finance: Netherlands. See FOREIGN EXCHANGES: Netherlands.

Finland: Politics and Government.

Finland. By Arthur Reade.—Polit. Quart. May, 1915, pp. 37-57.

Firearms: Industry and Trade. See ENGLAND: Army—Organization and Equipment.

Flying Corps. See ENGLAND: Army—Royal Flying Corps.

Food Supply.

Food scarcity in Austria-Hungary and Germany.—Economist, 13 Mar. 1915, pp. 525-7.

Rising prices. [Food supply in various countries during the war.]—New Statesman, 16 Jan. 1915, pp. 357-9.

Food Supply: England.

Corn and coal.—New Statesman, 30 Jan. 1915, pp. 405-7.

Food and drink. By Z. ["Waste of cereals in the manufacture of beer and spirits."]—Spectator, 26 June, 1915, p. 883.

Food: high prices and quack remedies: practical proposals.—Spectator, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 180-2.

Position of feeding-stuffs.—Statist, 27 Feb. 1915, pp. 332-4.

Practical proposals [regarding high prices].—Spectator, 6 Feb. 1915, pp. 181-2.

Wheat, flour, and bread.—Statist, 13 Feb. 1915, pp. 250-1.

See also BELGIAN REFUGEES IN ENGLAND.

Food Supply: Germany.

Food of a people.—New Statesman, 27 Feb. 1915, pp. 503-4.

Food supply of Germany.—Spectator, 27 Feb. 1915, pp. 290-1.

Food supply of Germany in war-time. From a Swiss correspondent.—Economist, 23 Jan. 1915, pp. 138-40.

Food supply of the German people. [Abstract of Paul Eltzbacher's book 'Die Deutsche Volksernährung und der Englische Aushungerungsplan'.]—Lancet, 20 Feb. 1915, pp. 389-99.

Germany is not starving.—New Statesman, 20 Feb. 1915, pp. 477-8.

Germany's food supplies. From a neutral correspondent.—Economist, 6 Mar. 1915, pp. 481-3.

Volksernährung und Landwirtschaft in der Kriegszeit. By A. Frank.—Technik und Wirtschaft, Jan. 1915, pp. 18-27.

Foreign Exchanges.

Foreign exchanges since the outbreak of war.—Jl. Roy. Statist. Soc. Jan. 1915, pp. 82-7.

See also GERMANY: Finance.

Foreign Exchanges: Netherlands.

Amsterdam exchanges.—Economist, 13 Mar. 1915, pp. 529-31.

Forests and Forestry: France.

Great War's destruction of French forests. By Jean Paul Alaux.—Amer. Forestry, Mar. 1915, pp. 155-68, 11 figs.

Fortification: Field. In List I.Foxhunting.

Foxhunting at the front. By T. Ashford White.—Daily's Mag. Mar. 1915, pp. 99-100.

(To be continued.)

ck ;
and
une,

-22.
pr.,
ept.

Rev.

915,

fall,

By

od's

ts.—

M.S.

etter

3-5.

Rev.

s.

7-57.

tation

omist,

war.]

acture

eals.—

Feb.

4.

0-1.

respon-

Eltz-

glische

477-8.

dent.—

By A.

Statist.

9-31.

laux.—

's Mag.